DR. KEYSER'S

PECTORAL SYRUP

CURES ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS

CURES CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, BRONCHITIS,

COLDS, CROUP, ASTHMA,

AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS.

I INVITE ATTENTION to some of the most extraordinary cures by my

PECTORAL SYRUP.

They are at home and any one who has doubts can inquire of the persons who have been cured by it.

Dr. KEYSER IS PREPARED AT ANY TIME TO EXAMINE LUNGS, WITHOUT CHARGE, FOR ALL THOSE WHO NEED HIS MEDICINE.

ATTEND TO YOUR COLDS.—A case of five years standing cured by

DR. KEYSER'S

PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 11th, 1860.

DR. KEYSER:—My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which for several years back had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your Pectoral Cough Syrup. I bought the first time a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to do so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18th, 1858.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicine in general, it affords me great pleasure to recommend your Pectoral Syrup. As a medicine it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be affected with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a cold.

I have been more or less, in my life affected with the severest colds of hoarseness. At times my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best medicine I ever found, purporting to cure the above; nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier, Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, O., March 14th, 1859.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. IT KNOCKED THE NOISE OUT OF MY COUGH, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with; I have not used more than one half of the bottle, and can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy.—You are at liberty to use my name in this regard, as you think proper. E. F. PRATT.

Messenger, Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURG, May 11th, 1859.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

READ THE TRUTH—DR. KEYSER: I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, who has taken several medicines for a bad cough, without benefit—among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your PECTORAL SYRUP, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robison street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURG, Decomber 31st, 1853.

A GREAT CURE, BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county.—I had a coughing and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months, I employed the best physicians in the county, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your PECTORAL SYRUP, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had disputed of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case. JOHN C. LITTLE, Peebles township.

Witness—B. M. KERR.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14th, 1857.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago, an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life. JOHN M'GINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable "Pectoral Syrup." Almost everybody around us has the cold and are inquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., tell us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I have been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so. I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely. Signed,

J. W. SIMONTON.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?"—"Go to Keyser's on Wood street and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears almost every day in cold catching seasons of the year. As we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral" in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburg with one of the most distressing contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we have ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact it seemed rather to improve by practice and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this state of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the Pectoral, took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered after a brief but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14th, 1859.

Select Poetry.

OH, BE NOT THE FIRST.

Oh! be not the first to discover
A blot on the fame of a friend,
A flaw in the faith of a lover,
Whose heart may prove true to the end.

We none of us know one another,
And oft into error we fall;
Then let us speak well of our brother,
Or speak not about him at all.

A smile or a sigh may awaken
Suspicion most false and undue;
And thus our belief may be shaken
In hearts that are honest and true.

How often the light smile of gladness
Is worn by the friends that we most
To cover a soul full of sadness,
Too proud to acknowledge defeat.

How often the sigh of dejection
Is heaved from the hypocrite's breast,
To parody truth and affection,
Or full a suspicion to rest.

How often the friends we hold dearest,
Their noblest emotions conceal;
And bosoms the purest sincerest,
Have secrets they cannot reveal.

Leave base minds to harbor suspicion,
And small ones to trace our defects—
Let ours be a noble ambition,
For base is the mind that suspects.

We none of us know one another,
And oft into error we fall;
Then let us speak well of our brother,
Or speak not about him at all.

CONSTANCY.

'Tis sweet to know we have a friend,
Unwavering as the sea-girt rock;
Where storms in vain their fury spend,
And naught but waves roll from the shock.

Unmoved, unflinching, there it stands,
Though ocean's waves around it roar;
Unlike the gay, coquettish sands
That sparkle on the distant shore.

And such a friend, methinks, is mine,
As pure as is the morning dew;
Unchanging with the change of time,
As constant as the rock is true.

THE LITTLE WHITE ANGEL.

Some children stood in a group before the door of the village school house one lovely summer evening.

They were all talking pleasantly together, from Kline, the son of the rich and proud Hoffmeister, to the little blue eyed Carl, the only child of the poor baker.

It is very true that Kline wore a velvet jacket, richly embroidered, while Carl's coat was old, and his wooden shoes were rough enough, in all conscience. But what of that? If they were good friends what difference did that make, I should like to know? Wait till children become grown people, for pity's sake, before you expect to measure each other's worth by what they possess or wear.

"The new schoolmaster, Meinheer Friederich, comes to-morrow," said Otto. "I am so glad. I was weary of that old Master Hoffman, with his crooked problems and hard lessons."

"So was I, truly," cried Kline, who, although a good, merry boy, hated his books as he did medicine.

"Ah! thou didst always like play better than work, my Kline," said Max, "and so do I. Meinheer Frederich will be wise if he keeps thee and me apart during school hours. But come—see which can get home first—one, two, three!" And away they all scampered, laughing and shouting as only schoolboys can.

The following day the boys were standing around the school house, when the door opened, and Master Frederich himself appeared, and cried in a cheery hearty voice:

"Welcome, my children!"

"Welcome, Master!" cried they.

And now they entered and took their seats, and were quite still while the good master read a short chapter in the Book of Books, and then reverently kneeling, prayed that the good Saviour would guide him in his teachings, and bless them, and send His holy spirit to watch over them all.

School began; the thumb worn books were brought out; the lazy boys began to sigh and frown, and wish impatiently for the recess, and wonder why Latin Dictionaries were ever invented; when as if by magic, they found themselves listening to the pleasant voice of Master Friederich, and actually understanding their lessons—so clear and simple were his explanations; and the time for recess came, to their great astonishment, long before they had expected.

When the studies were over, the master drew from his desk a box, and whilst the children gathered around, he opened it, and drew out charming little white and pink sea shells pretty pictures, and many other beautiful things, which he gave to the children with loving words.

But the most lovely thing of all was a little white porcelain statuette of an angel. She stood—so fair, so pure—with her small white hands folded over her breast, and her eyes uplifted that the children gazed enchanted.

"Oh, the dear angel, the beautiful angel!" cried they all. "Wilt thou not give it to me, Mr. Friederich?"

But the good master smiled and said:

"The little angel is too lovely to be given to any one without an equivalent."

"What shall we give you for it?" cried the boys.

"Well," said master Friederich, "he who brings me the brightest thing on earth to-morrow, shall have the angel."

On the next day, as might be supposed, a motley collection of articles were produced.

Some had polished upon shilling till it shone like a little crown; one brought a watch crystal which his father had given him, and which he considered a wonder of transparent brightness; and Kline, the rich Hoffmeister's son, had bought a paste buckle, made to imitate diamonds, than which, in his opinion, nothing could be brighter.

All these things were placed on the master's desk, side by side. The shilling shone away famously, the pebbles and watch crystal did their best, but Kline's buckle was the bravest of all

"Ah, mine's the brightest!" shouted Kline, clapping his hands.

"But where is little Carl?" said Master Friederich, "he ran out just now."

All eyes were turned to the door, when presently in rushed Carl, breathless. In his hands, held up lovingly against his neck, was a poor little snow white dove. Some crimson drops upon the downy breast showed that it was wounded.

"O, master," cried Carl, "I was looking for something bright, when I came upon the poor little white dove. Some cruel boys were tormenting it, and I caught it quickly and ran here. Oh, I fear it will die."

Even as he spoke, the dove's soft eyes grew filmy, it nestled closer in Carl's neck then gave a faint cry, drooped its little head and died.

Carl sank on his knees beside the master's desk, and from his eyes there fell upon the white dove's poor broken wing, two tears large and bright.

The master took the dead dove from his hands, and laid it tenderly on the desk with the bright things; then raising Carl he softly said: "My children, there is no brighter thing on earth than a tender pitying tear."

The boys were silent for a moment, for they felt that the master had decided that Carl had rightly won the angel; then Kline cried out:

"My master, thou didst not fairly explain to us. I pray thee give us another trial."

"Yes, dear master," said Max, "give us one more trial."

"What sayest thou Carl?" said Master Friederich.

"Yes, dear master," answered the generous boy.

The good master smiled thoughtfully, and his eyes rested for a moment lovingly upon Carl; then glancing around, he said:

"He who brings me the loveliest thing on earth to-morrow, shall have the angel."

The children clapped their hands and departed satisfied.

After school the next day, Kline was the first to run up to Master Friederich, and lay upon his desk what he considered the loveliest thing in the whole world, his new soldier cap, with the long scarlet feather and bright golden tassel.

Max came next and placed beside the cap a small silver watch, his last birth day gift, with a bright steel chain attached; Otto brought a great picture book, just sent to him by his god mother; Rudolph a tiny marble vase, richly sculptured; and so on, until a still more motley collection than before lay upon Master Friederich's desk.

Then poor little Carl stepped modestly up and placed in his master's hand a pure white lilly.

The rich perfume filled the room, and bending over the flower inhaling, the delicious fragrance, the master softly said—"My children, the Blessed Word of God says, 'Behold the lilies of the valley: they toil not, neither do they spin, yet Solomon in all his glory, was not arrayed like one of these.' Carl has rightly chosen."

But murmurs arose; the children were not satisfied; and again they asked for another trial.

And as before, good Master Friederich inquired.

"What sayest thou Carl?" and he answered as before with generous haste, "Yes, dear master."

"Now this is the last time," said the master "he who brings me the best thing on earth shall have the angel."

"The very best thing on earth is plum cake," cried Kline on the third day, as he walked up to the desk, bearing a large cake, richly frosted, with a wreath of sugar roses round the edge—this he placed triumphantly before the master, sure of the prize.

"Nay, thou art wrong this time, Kline," said Max, "I asked my father what was the very best thing on earth, and he laughed and gave me this golden guilder—the prize is mine."

"Ah, but my father said that, the very best was a good glass of Rheinish wine!" cried Otto, "and I have brought a bottle of it, thirty years old. The prize is surely mine."

So they went on, till all had placed their offerings before their master.

"And thou, Carl," said he, "what hast thou brought which thou thinkest the best thing on earth?"

A crimson flush rose to the little boy's forehead, and coming softly forward, he took from his breast a small worn Testament, pressed it to his lips, and then ferverently laid it down with the rest—as he said in a slow sweet voice, "My mother, dear master, says that God's precious Testament is far beyond all earthly possessions."

"'Tis thine, Carl!" cried the master, snatching the boy to his breast. "The white angel is thine! for there is nothing in the wide world half so precious as the blessed words of Christ"—and he placed the angel in the hands of the trembling boy.

Kline knit his brows, and gazed with anger and disappointment at the little Carl—and the rest seeing him do this felt themselves aggrieved, but suddenly the cloud cleared from Kline's face, and rushing forward he caught Carl, in his arms, crying, "Forgive me, dear Carl—now I am glad thou hast won the prize."

Ah! the blessed effect of a bright example. Quickly joining hands, the children danced joyfully around the little Carl, who stood in their midst, the white angel pressed to his heart—his fair hair falling in curls on his shoulders and his blue eyes full of holy tears.

The good Master Friederich also wept for joy, and prayed from the depths of his pure and simple heart, that the Saviour would bless this lesson to the children's everlasting good. He had turned away that none might perceive his tears.

But One in Heaven saw them, Master Friederich.

DEALING WITH THIEVES.

The following true story is told of Jacob Shaaf, Esq., a merchant of Portsmouth in former times:

A man had purchased some wool of him, which he had weighed and paid for, and Mr. Sheaf had gone into the back room to get change for a note. Happening to turn his head while there, he saw in a glass, which swung so as to reflect the shop, a stout arm reach up and take from the shelf a heavy cheese. Instead of appearing suddenly and rebuking the man for his theft, as another would have done, thereby losing his custom forever, the crafty old gentleman gave the thief his change, as if nothing had happened, and then, under the pretence of lifting the bag as if to lay it on the horse for him, took hold of it, and exclaimed:

"Why, bless me, I must have reckoned the weight wrong!"

"Oh, no," said the other, "you may be sure you have not, for I counted with you."

"Well, well, we won't dispute about the matter, it's so easily tried," said Mr. Sheaf, putting the bag into the scales again. "There," said he, "I told you so; knew I was right—made a mistake of nearly twenty pounds; however, if you don't want the whole, you needn't have it; I'll take part out."

"No!" said the other, staying the hands of Mr. Sheaf on the way to strings of the bag, "I guess I'll take the whole."

And this he did, paying for dishonesty by receiving the skim milk cheese for the price of wool.

On another occasion Mr. S. missed a barrel of pork. A few months after, a man asked the question:

"Did you ever find out who took that pork, Mr. Sheaf?"

"Yes," was the reply, "you are the fellow; for none but myself and the thief knew of the loss."

The fellow was detected by the shrewd dealer, who possessed the valuable faculty of knowing when to be silent.

PRODUCTIONS OF THE JAW.—The muscles of the human jaw produce a power equal to four hundred and thirty-four pounds. This is only what science tells us, but we know the jaw of some of our lawyers is equal to a good many thousand pounds a year to them.

INDIAN CRUELTIES IN TEXAS.

The story of the horrible treatment inflicted last month in Parker county, by a band of savages, on the person of the ill-fated Mrs. Sherman, has already been told, but the following narrative of her sufferings from the pen of her sister, Mrs. S. P. Murtin, is absolutely harrowing. It was written to the brother of both sisters, who resides in Fayettevillo, Fayette county. The letter is dated Parker county, December 17, 1860.

"My Dear Brother: The Indians have again come down upon us, murdering our dear sister, Martha A. Sherman. Her fate and sufferings are too horrible to relate; a thought of the affair sinks my soul into despair, and you see that these lines are nearly obliterated by tears. To sicken and die by the ordinary circumstances of Providence is but moderate suffering, but to suffer the thousand deaths of a dying one at the hands of the pittiless savage melts the heart to contemplate.

"The Indians went to Mr. Sherman's house, shook hands with all, and asked for something to eat. It was dinner time and they gave the Indians the table. They ate and then ordered Mr. S. to leave the house. He did so, taking with him his wife and three small children.—They had got off some five or six hundred yards when the Indians overtook them, sister was carried back to the house by them, alone, leaving Mr. S. and the children. The heartless wretches here began their brutal outrages, whipping her all the way to the house, over the face and head, with their whips. After reaching the house they took from it every article of value, even to the bed clothing; then took poor sister by the hair of the head, one of the brutes on either side of her, still whipping her. They even stuck pins in her flesh, and tortured her in every possible manner; finally took off her clothing, continuing to whip her till nature was exhausted, she sank under the burthen of relentless cruelty. They then scalped her, taking off every strand of her dear hair, leaving the skull bone bare. And then, to cap the climax, they shot her through the shoulder, leaving her as they thought, to die struggling in her own life's blood. Here she was found by her husband, trying to drag her almost lifeless body to a mud hole of water near by. In this mangled state she lived four days, suffering more than language can describe."—Galveston (Texas) News.

A MOTHER'S GRAVE.—Earth has some sacred spot where we feel like losing shoes from our feet, and treading with reverence; where common words of social converse seem rude, and friendship's hands have lingered in each other; where vows have been plighted, prayers offered, and tears of parting shed. Oh! how thoughts hover around such places, and travel back through unmeasured space to visit them! But of all the spots on this green earth none is so sacred as that where rests, waiting the resurrection, those we have once loved and cherished—our brothers, or our children. Hence, in all ages, the better part of mankind have chosen and loved spots of the dead, and on the spots they have loved to wander at eventide and meditate. But of all places, even among the charnel-house of the dead, none is so sacred as a mother's grave. There sleeps the nurse of infancy, the guide of our youth, the counseller of our riper years—our friend when others deserted us; she whose heart was a stranger to every other feeling but love—there she sleeps, and we love the very earth for her sake.

WORKING IN THE GARDEN TOO EARLY.—Many enthusiasts in the garden are so carried away by the temptation of fine spring weather, that they commence garden work, transplanting, spading, &c., before the ground is in a fit state of readiness. The consequence is that the wet soil dries in solid clods on the surface, or becomes packed around the roots in a mass impenetrable to air, and almost to moisture. Nothing can grow well in such a soil, and, to avoid it, patience should be had until the soil can be worked without adhering to the spade when digging.

THE CHALLENGE.—A Judge being challenge by a General, the following dialogue ensued:

General—Did you receive my note, sir?

Judge—Yes, sir.

General—Well, do you intend to fight me?

Judge—No sir.

General—Then, sir, I consider you a pitiful coward.

Judge—Right, sir, you knew that very well, or you never would have challenged me.

☞ Parson A. belonged to a temperance society, all the members of which were total abstinence men. One of his friends had a strange misgiving of the minister's cold water propensities.

"Pray, Mr. A.," said he, "what is the meaning of total abstinence?"

"Why," answered the shrewd clergyman with a sly leer, "it means not to drink so fast as to choke yourself."

A MODEST CHILD.—Schoolmarm—"Thomas what does B-e-n-c-h spell?"

Tommy—"Don't know ma'am."

Schoolmarm—"Why you little numbskull, what are you sitting on?"

Tommy (looking sheepish)—"I d-o-n't l-i-k-e t-o t-e-l-l!"

SUPPRESSION OF FORTUNE TELLING.—The bill for the suppression of fortune telling, etc., has passed the House of Representatives, and will no doubt go through the Senate. It provides that any person who shall pretend, for gain or lucre, to predict future events by cards, tokens, the inspection of the head or hands of any person, or by any one's age, or consulting the movements of the heavenly bodies; or who shall pretend, for gain or lucre, to effect any purpose by spells, charms, necromancy or incantation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by any Court of Quarter Sessions in this Commonwealth, with fine and imprisonment. The first offence shall be punished with not more than two years imprisonment, nor less than fifteen days, and a fine of not more than $100 nor less than $10; the second offence with any term of imprisonment and fine exceeding the above that the Court may deem proper. That any person or persons who shall advise the taking or administering of what are commonly called love powders, or portions, or who shall prepare the same to be taken or administered, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as above provided.

☞ John Covode, representative in Congress from Pennsylvania, had a narrow escape from death a few days since. One of his friends, a distinguished member of Congress from Pennsylvania, happened, by accident, to examine a beautiful weapon of war, of Sharpe's invention; and, in making the experiment of trying the trigger, the rifle went off, and the ball pierced through the door of one room, passing into an adjoining apartment, and cutting its way through the rail of the bedstead upon which the honorable man was seated at the moment. The ball passed within about a couple of inches of his person. A dozen persons, at least, were in the same room, and by the greatest good luck in the world, nobody was hurt.

SIGNED.—The Governor has signed the bill for the commutation of the tonnage tax on the Pennsylvania railroad, and also the bill affording relief to and changing the title of the Sunbury and Erie railroad company. The latter company will henceforth be known as the Philadelphia and Erie railroad. By the passage of the bill in reference to the Pennsylvania railroad, the litigation pending between it and the Commonwealth is at an end, the company being relieved, as we are informed, not only of further charges on account of tonnage, but also of the judgements of $255,000, which the State has recovered against it.

THE LATEST.—A telegraph despatch, dated Washington, March 11th, says:—

An official letter from Major Anderson, received on Saturday, says he had only fifteen days subsistence and wood on hand. The question has therefore arisen with the administration whether reinforcements shall be attempted, or the fort abandoned. The latter course, it is thought, will be adopted, from inevitable necessity, by the advice of Lieut General Scott.—There is, however, a conflict of opinion among the Republicans on this question and no conclusions have been arrived at in the Cabinet council.

We have nothing later to contradict or confirm the above. What may be the conclusions of the President and Cabinet we have not the remotest idea, but a few days must determine the matter one way or the other.

☞ Hon. S. S. Blair has our thanks for numerous favors in the way of public documents, and especially for a couple of packages of rare garden seeds. Col. L. W. Hall and G. W. Patton, Esq., of the Senate, and Jas. Roller, Esq., of the House, have our thanks for numerous favors.

☞ Up to the hour of going to press we have nothing later from Washington than that given above.

Pittsburgh Female College.

The present term of the highly successful and useful institution closed on the 15th of this month, with the usual literary exercises. In the evening a literary contest took place, in which several of the pupils participated. Five gentlemen presided as judges on the occasion, and a silver cup was to be awarded to the successful contestant. The exercises were full of interest, and there was a highly exciting contest among those young ladies who took an active part in them.—The Spring session will commence on Wednesday, the 20th of March. Those at a distance who intend to enter, would do well to give notice to the President, Rev. I. C. Pershing, at as early a day as possible. The attendance during the past session has been far in advance of that of any previous winter in the history of the College. The institution has been gradually but surely winning its way into the affections of the public, until it can now boast a patronage far in advance of that of any similar school in Eastern Ohio or Western Pennsylvania. As evidence of its great success under Mr. Pershing's administration, we may cite the fact that not only was a fine philosophical and chemical apparatus purchased this year, but the indebtedness of the institution was reduced some $10,000. The Trustees are fortunate, indeed, in the services of a gentleman of such efficiency and ability as Mr. P., and under his active management, the College cannot but succeed. The institution we consider one of the best managed and meritorious in the country, and as such we can cheerfully commend it to all having daughters to educate.

☞ Thirty years ago, Hon. Horatio King, the present Postmaster General, and Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, the new Vice President, were engaged in publishing a weekly newspaper in the small and obscure village of Paris, away down in the State of Maine.

HORRIBLE MURDER.—A dreadful murder was perpetrated near Downingtown, Chester county, on Saturday morning week. The victim was a pedlar, familiarly known as "Dutch Jake," and the circumstances under which he met with his death are as follows: On Friday night he stopped at Mortonville, and was incautious enough to display some two hundred dollars in gold, which he had in his possession. Saturday morning, about ten o'clock, he visited the house of Furman Miller, situated on the public road, some five miles from Dawningtown, and half an hour later he was found murdered in the neighborhood, his brains having been beaten out with a club, and his skull embedded in the earth through the force of the blows administered him. The bushes and stones in the vicinity were bespattered with blood, and everything indicated a severe struggle between the murderer and his victim. His body was stretched out at full length, and one hand grasped a fence rail. His pockets had been rifled of the gold and a watch and chain. A small box containing jewelry was also carried away, but his pack remained near his side. A number of arrests have been made, but it is believed that the guilty party has not yet been discovered. The murder was committed within sight of three farm houses, and is one of the most atrocious on record.

REVOLTING MURDER.—A most horrible murder was perpetrated in Juniata county, on Saturday night last. Between seven and eight o'clock two villains entered the house of Mr. Henry Auker, some eight miles from Mifflintown, and demanded his money. He told them he had not ten dollars in the house, whereupon one of the villains drew a pistol and fired at Mr A., the ball taking effect in one of his arms above the elbow. This effort not satisfying the villain, he sunk a hatchet into the old man's head, killing him instantly. They then prepared to plunder the house, but finding that there were other persons inside, they made a hasty exit from the dwelling. The alarm was given and the entire neighborhood turned out in pursuit of the murderers. On Sunday two men named Lovering and Howder were arrested on suspicion and lodged in jail. They have since confessed.

SUICIDE OF A MURDERER.—John Cathcart, incarcerated in the county jail in this Borough, under sentence of death for the murder of his wife last summer, and who was to have been executed on the 12th of April next, committed suicide on last Sabbath night, by hanging himself in his cell with a pocket handkerchief. It seems he had placed the handkerchief around one of the iron bars which run across the plank lining of the cell and then tied it around his neck. In order to prevent himself using his hands, he had tied them together and passed them over one of his legs so that he stood astraddle of them. In order to strangle himself he had drawn up his feet to keep them off the floor, or rather, perhaps, he had to lean forward in a stooping posture to accomplish his fearful purpose.—Clearfield Journal.

THE NEW CABINET.—President Lincoln's Cabinet is composed as follows:

Secretary of State—Wm. H. Seward, of New York.

Secretary of Treasury—Salmon P. Chase, of Ohio.

Secretary of War—Simon Cameron, of Pennsylvania.

Secretary of Navy—Gideon Welles, of Connecticut.

Secretary of Interior—Caleb B. Smith, of Indiana.

Postmaster General—Montgomery Blair, of Maryland.

Attorney General—Edward Bates, of Missouri.

☞ A Yankee invention called a "Sleeping-Cap and Braces" is being sold along the New York Central Railroad to passengers. It is a small skull cap, made of velvet, with straps attached, which the wearer can fasten to the seat in front of him, and thus lie back in the harness and sleep. Weary travelers who know not where to lay their head will perhaps regard this invention as a blessing. The cap and braces can be had at from six to twelve shillings, and can be carried in the pocket.

THE PELICAN FLAG REPUDIATED.—The Louisiana Legislature have discarded the Pelican flag—the bird being pronounced "ungainly in sight, filthy in habit, and cowardly in nature." In lieu of it another flag was adopted, composed of thirteen stripes, blue, white, and red, alternate, so as to represent the thirteen old colonies as well as the tri-color flag of France.

The New Tariff.

Presuming that that portion of the new Tariff Bill which relates to iron has more of interest to our readers than any other, we give it below. The bill goes into effect on the 1st of April. It provides for the following duties on iron, steel, iron ore, &c.:

First—On bar iron, rolled or hammered, comprising flats not less than one inch or more than seven inches wide, nor less than one quarter of an inch or more than two inches thick; rounds, not less than one-half an inch or more than four inches in diameter; and squares not less than one-half an inch or more than four inches square, fifteen dollars per ton: Provided, That all iron in slabs, blooms, loops, or other forms, less finished than iron bars, and more advanced than pig iron, shall be rated as iron in bars, and pay a duty accordingly: And, Provided, further, That none of the above iron shall pay a less rate of duty than twenty per centum ad valorum; on all iron imported in bars for railroads or inclined planes, made to patterns, and fitted to be laid down upon such roads or planes without further manufacture, and not exceeding six inches high, twelve dollars per ton; on boiler-plate iron, twenty dollars per ton; on iron wire, drawn and finished, not more than one-fourth of one inch in diameter, nor less than sixteen wire gauge, seventy-five cents per one hundred pounds, and fifteen per centum ad valorum; over number sixteen, and not over twenty-five wire gauge, one dollar and fifty cents per one hundred pounds, and in addition fifteen per centum ad valorum; over or finer than number twenty-five wire gauge, two dollars per one hundred pounds, and in addition fifteen per centum ad valorum; on all other descriptions of rolled or hammered iron, not otherwise provided for, twenty dollars per ton.

Second—On iron in pigs, six dollars per ton, on vessels of cast iron, not otherwise provided for, and on irons, tailors' and hatters' irons, stoves and stove plates, one cent per pound; on cast iron steam, gas, and water pipe, fifty cents per one hundred pounds; on cast iron butts and hinges, two cents per pound; on hollow ware, glazed or tinned, two cents and a half per pound; on all other castings of iron, not otherwise provided for, twenty-five per centum ad valoum.

Third—On old scrap iron, six dollars per ton: Provided, That nothing shall be deemed old iron that has not been in actual use, and fit only to be re-manufactured.

Fourth—On band and hoop iron, slit rods for nails, nuts, and horseshoes not otherwise provided for, twenty dollars per ton; on cut nails and spikes, one cent per pound; on iron cables or chains, or parts thereof, and anvils, one dollar and twenty five cents per one hundred pounds; on anchors, or parts thereof, and anvils, one dollar and fifty cents per one hundred pounds; on wrought board nails, spikes, rivets and bolts, two cents per pound; on bed screws and wrought hinges, one cent and a half per pound; on chains, trace chains, halter chains, and fence chains, made or wire or rods one half of one inch in diameter or over, one cent and a half per pound; under one-half of one inch in diameter, and not under one-fourth of one inch in diameter, two cents per pound; under one-fourth of one inch in diameter, and not under number nine wire gauge, two cents and a half per pound; under number nine wire gauge, twenty-fire per centum ad valorum; on blacksmiths' hammers and sledges, axles, or parts thereof, and malleable iron in castings, not otherwise provided for, two cents per pound; on horse-shoe nails, three cents and a half per pound; on steam, gas, and water tubes and flues, of wrought iron, two cents per pound; on wrought iron railroad chairs [one dollar and twenty-five cents per one hundred pounds,] and on wrought iron nuts and washers, ready punched, twenty-five dollars per ton; on cut tacks, brads, and springs, not exceeding sixteen ounces to the thousand, two cents per thousand; exceeding sixteen ounces to the thousand, two cents per pound.

Fifth—On smooth or polished sheet iron, by whatever name designated, two cents per pound; on other sheet iron, common or black, not thinner than number twenty wire guage, twenty dollars per ton; thinner than number twenty, and not thinner than number twenty-five wire guage, twenty-five dollars per ton; thinner than number twenty-five wire guage, thirty dollars per ton; on tin plates galvanized, galvanized iron, or iron coated with zinc, two cents per pound; on mill irons and mill cranks of wrought iron, and wrought iron for ships, locomotives, locomotive tire, or parts thereof, and steam-engines, or parts thereof, weighing each twenty-five pounds or more, one cent and a half per pound; on screws, commonly called wood screws, two inches or over in length, five cents per pound; two inches and less than two inches in length, eight cents per pound; on screws washed or plated, and on all other screws of iron or any other metal, thirty per centum ad valorum.

Sixth—On all steel in ingots, bars, sheets, or wire, not less than one-fourth of one inch in diameter, valued at above seven cents per pound, and not above eleven cents per pound, two cents per pound; and valued at eleven cents per per pound, two cents and a half per pound.:

Provided, That no steel in any form, not otherwise provided for, shall pay a duty of twenty per centum ad valorum; on steel wire less than one-fourth of an inch in diameter, and not less than number sixteen wire guage, two dollars per one hundred pounds, and in addition thereto fifteen per centum ad valorum; less or finer than number sixteen wire guage, two dollars and fifteen cents per one hundred pounds, and in addition thereto fifteen per centum ad valorum; on cross cut saws eight cents per lineal foot; on mill pit and drag saws, not over nine inches wide, twelve and a half cents per lineal foot; over nine inches wide, twenty cents per lineal foot; on skates costing twenty cents, or less, per pair, six cents per pair; on those costing over twenty cents per pair, thirty per centum advalorum; on all manufactures of steel, of which steel shall be a component part, not otherwise provided for, thirty per centum ad valorum: Provided, all articles partially manufactured, not otherwise provided for, shall pay the same rate of duty as if wholly manufactured.

Seventh—On bituminous coal, one dollar per ton of twenty-eight bushels, eighty pounds to the bushel; on all other coal, fifty cents per ton of twenty-eight bushels, eighty pounds to the bushel; on coke and culm of coal, twenty-five per centum advalorum. Whenever the word ton is used in the act, it shall be deemed and taken to be twenty hundred weight, each hundred weight being one hundred and twelve pounds avoirdupois. Railroad iron that has been partly used will be admitted free of duty under the act.

CANDID CONFESSION.—Florida, says the Pensacola Observer, will soon be called upon to furnish her quota of men for the regular army of the Southern Confederacy. This quota has been put down at one thousand men. With an empty treasury, we cannot imagine how she can enlist, equip and arm this number. If our state is bankrupt at this early stage of the action, we think the sooner she sells out the better. If the State Government cannot be carried on for want of funds, let Florida be divided between our sister States of Georgia and Alabama, by the line of the Chatthooche river. The sooner this is done the better, for to this must it come at last.

IMPORTANT TO INVENTORS.—The Patent bill, as finally passed, extends the term of patens hereafter granted, to seventeen years, and prohibits all extensions thereafter.

ENORMOUS BUSINESS FOR ONE NEW YORK MERCHANT.—We are happy to inform our fellow-citizens that there is one place in our city where the physician, apothecary, and country merchant, can go and purchase pure Wines and Liquors, as pure as imported, and of the best quality. We do not intend to give an elaborate description of this merchant's extensive business, although it will well repay any stranger or citizen to visit Udolpho Wolfe's extensive warehouse, Nos. 18, 20 and 22, Beaver street, and Nos. 17, 19 and 21, Marketfield street. His stock of Schnapps on hand ready for shipment could not have been less than thirty thousand cases; the Brandy, some ten thousand cases—Vintages of 1836 to 1856; and ten thousand cases of Madeira, Sherry and Port Wine, Scotch and Irish Whiskey, Jamaica and St. Croix Rum, some very old and equal to any in this country. He also had three large cellars, filled with Brandy, Wine, &c., in casks, under Custom-House key, ready for bottling. Mr. Wolfe's sales of Schnapps last year amounted to one hundred and eighty thousand dozen, and we hope in less than two years he may be equally successful with his Brandies and Wines.

His business merits the patronage of every lover of his species. Private families who wish pure Wines and Liquors for medical use should send their orders direct to Mr. Wolfe, until every Apothecary in the land make up their minds to discard the poisonous stuff from their shelves, and replace it with Wolfe's pure Wines and Liquors.

We understand that Mr. Wolfe, for the accommodation of small dealers in the country, puts up assorted cases of Wines and Liquors. Such a man, and such a merchant, should be sustained against his tens of thousands of opponents in the United States, who sell nothing but imitations, ruinous alike to human health and happiness.

CURE
All kinds of Headache.

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels,—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

The CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a vast amount of pain and suffering from Headache, whether originating in the nervous system or from a deranged state of the stomach.

They are entirely vegetable in their composition, and may be taken at all times with perfect safety without making any change of diet, and the absence of any disagreeable taste renders it easy to administer them to children.

From the Examiner, Norfolk, Va.

Cephalic Pills accomplish the object for which they were made, viz.: Cure of headache in all its forms.

From the Examiner, Norfolk, Va.

They have been tested in more than a thousand cases with entire success.

From the Democrat, St. Cloud, Minn.

If you are, or have been troubled with the headache, send for a box, (Cephalic Pills,) so that you may have them in case of an attack.

From the Advertiser, Providence, R. I.

The Cephalic Pills are said to be a remarkably effective remedy for the headache, and one of the very best for that very frequent complaint which has ever been discovered.

From the Western R. R. Gazette, Chicago, Ill.

We heartily endorse Mr. Spalding, and his unrivalled Cephalic Pills.

From the Kanawha Valley Star, Kanawha, Va.

We are sure that persons suffering with the headache, who try them, will stick to them.

From the Southern Fish Finder, New Orleans, La.

Try them! you that are afflicted, and we are sure that your testimony can be added to the already numerous list, that has received benefits that no other medicine can produce.

LOCAL ITEMS.

WHO SHALL BE POST-MASTER?—This appears to be the great question of the day among some of our citizens. There are some four candidates in the field and all of them putting their best foot foremost to distance their competitors.—Thus far no one of them appears to have the inside track and there is no certainty who the appointee will be. A strenuous effort is being made by the friends of some of the town candidates to prevent the appointment being given to the applicant from the country. Among hands it is likely that Mr. Blair, Congressman from this district, who has the recommending of applicants to the Post Master General and the President, is likely to be placed in a rather delicate position, and it has been intimated that he would refer the matter to a vote of the people. This course has been pursued in a number of places of the size of Altoona, and it really appears to us that it is the proper way of finding out who the people desire to fill the office.—Should Mr. B. recommend this plan of settling the dispute, in order to relieve himself, we presume the candidates could not seriously object, as nome of them would desire to hold the office contrary to the wishes of a majority of those who receive mail matter through it.

BOYS IN A FIX.—On Sunday week, a half-dozen of boys, of this place, between the ages of ten and fifteen years, affected an entrance into a freight car loaded with cigars, crackers, &c., which was standing in the yard in this place, and took therefrom a supply of the articles named, sufficient to last them for several days. But their enjoyment of these luxuries was of short duration, as on the same evening information of the transaction was communicated to the officers of the road, who put Joe Ely on the track of the boys, and ere the shades of evening closed in, he had "pulled" four or five of them and closed them in the "Lock-Up."—On Monday morning they had a hearing before Esquire McClelland, who bound them over to appear at the next term of Quarter Sessions.—The boys now stand a very fair chance of discovering that they would have employed their time more profitably had they attended Church and Sunday School on that day.

HOW IT IS DONE.—All who have travelled at night in the cars of the Penn'a R. R., and most of our citizens, know that they are lighted with gas, but few are familiar with the manner of its introduction into the different cars on the trains. With a view to enlighten them on this subject we may state that the Company have a building adjoining their shops in this place, and convenient to the depot, in which are twenty receivers, each ten feet long which will sustain a pressure 900 pounds to the square inch. By the aid of a gas pump, the gas received from the gas works in this place is forced into the receivers to a pressure of 600 pounds. By means of pipes it is conducted from these receivers to the receiver on each car, which is seven feet six inches high, fourteen inches in diameter, and which, with a pressure of from 500 to 600 pounds, contains sufficient to supply two six foot burners and one three foot burner from sixteen to eighteen hours, or one round trip.

REV. SAMUEL CREIGHTON.—This gentleman, who, for the past two years has had charge of the Methodist congregation in this place, delivered his farewell address before the Sabbath School and a large audience, on Sunday afternoon last, and on Tuesday morning left for Conference, which met at Chambersburg yesterday. According to the economy of the Methodist Church, he can not be returned to this charge, the itinerant system requiring a change every two years at most. His labors here have been crowned with success, and he leaves the church in the midst of a spirited revival. He takes with him the best wishes of his congregation and acquaintances for his future welfare. As an evidence of the substantial manner in which he was appreciated, we may add that a few days previous to his departure a party of young persons called upon him and presented him a purse containing $25. In times like these, such evidences of good will speak louder than words.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The Daily Telegram, published at Springfield, Ohio, contains an account of the fifteenth Anniversary of the Excelsior Literary Society, of Wittenburg College, at that place, from which we copy the following complimentary notice:—

The exercises were closed with the oration of J. M. Bell, of Altoona, Pa. Subject, "Man, the Crowning Work." It was a manly and Christian view of the grand work of creative genius, with particular reference to man, his distinguishing attributes and character. His tone and manner was in harmony with the subject, and made a good impression.

LECTURE.—We are pleased to be able to announce to our citizens that Miss Louise E. Vickroy, the poetess, will deliver a lecture in Lowther's Hall, this (Thursday) evening, on the "Poets and Poetry of America." Miss V. is capable of treating this subject in a proper manner being herself one of the best writers in the country. We hope that she may have a good audience.

WATCH PRESENTATION.—On Saturday evening last, the citizens of Hollidaysburg met at the Exchange Hotel, in that place, and presented to Capt. Jas. H. Cramer, the "model conductor," a handsome gold watch and chain.—The watch bore the following inscription:—Presented to Capt. James H. Cramer, by the citizens of Hollidaysburg, as a token of regard for his gentlemanly conduct as Conductor of the Branch Train, March 9, 1861." It was a valuable present and it was bestowed upon a worthy man. The kindness and courtesy of Capt. Cramer are proverbial. None who have ever traveled with him have failed to recognise the perfect gentleman in his conduct. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at the supper served up on the occasion, but circumstances would not permit us to be in attendance.

PUSHING ALONG.—We mean our neighbor down stairs, A. Roush. He does not boast of what can be done, nor does he by any foul means, try to get the advantage of other men, but by strict attention to his business, and exertion to satisfy the wants of his customers, he tries to gain a share of the public patronage.—The last three years have proved that he has "hit the nail on the head." He has, in that time, built up a trade which would astonish many an older hand, and speaks well in his favor. Give him a call.

☞ Rev. Lloyd Knight, pastor of the Lutheran congregation at Hollidaysburg, in a communication in the Register, in reference to a donation visit, says that during the eleven years which he has had charge of that congregation he has baptised 540 children, attended 200 funerals, preached nearly 2000 times, solemnized 210 marriages and admitted 440 members into church communion. Evidently he is a faithful pastor.

TO THE LADIES.—Our young friend, R. A. O. Kerr, has been appointed agent for Blair county, for the sale of Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines, samples of which can be seen by calling at his store, in this place. These machines are numbered among the best in the country.—There are a number of them in use in this place, and all give perfect satisfaction. The ladies are invited to call and examine these machines.

ACCIDENTS.—Martin Lewis, an employee of the Company, at the depot in this place, had his left arm badly fractured whilst engaged in coupling cars, on Tuesday of last week.

On Sunday night last, Michael Gnevan, employed in the round house, had his right leg broken about three inches above the ankle by a fall from a locomotive which he was engaged in cleaning.

☞ We copy the following from a late number of the Tyrone Star:—

DR. A. P. CALDERWOOD.—We regret that this gentleman intends leaving us on the first of April, for the purpose of locating in our neighboring borough of Altoona. There is an old French saying that "no man should ever recommend a cook or a physician." In spite of this adage, however, we have no hesitancy in recomending Dr. Calderwood to the citizens among whom he intends locating. He has been our family physician during our residence in Tyrone, and it is with sincere regret that we must part with him. He carries with him to his new home the good wishes of a large portion of our community, who have every confidence in his ability as a skillful practioner.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Through the columns of your paper I desire to return a token of gratitude to the people of Altoona for the kindness and hospitality extended to me during my visitation with the publications of the American Tract Society. My sales were much larger than I anticipated, and the kind receptions I received enabled me to work in faith, with the assurance that hundreds and thousands will realize the worth of the publications I sold, and will speak in volumes of truth in saving and converting sinners. The people of Altoona will long be remembered by me for their kindness.

DISSOLUTION.—Notice is hereby given that the co-partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, trading under the name of Dill & Ickes, in the mercantile business, was dissolved by mutual consent on the 12th day of March, 1861.

MATTHEW T. DILL,
JOSEPH E. ICKES.

Having disposed of my interest in the firm of Dill & Ickes to Joseph E. Ickes, I respectfully recommend him to the friends and customers of the firm for a continuance of their patronage. Mr. Ickes is authorized to collect the accounts of the firm and settle all bills against it.

MATTHEW T. DILL.

Having purchased the interest of M. T. Dill, in the firm of Dill & Ickes, I will continue the business under the style of Joseph E. Ickes, and respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage bestowed.

JOSEPH E. ICKES.

N. B. I have on hand at present a general assortment of goods adapted to the season, such as are generally kept in a country store, with groceries of the very best. Hardware Queensware, Glassware, Butter, Eggs, Potatoes, Flour, Feed, &c., which I will sell as cheap as the cheapest. Call and see me, one and all, and you shall be accommodated.

Altoona, Feb. 28, '61-3t.

JACOB SNYDER, TAILOR,

The Hero of One Hundred Fits per Month!

I would respectfully set forth my claim to public attention, as a Fashionable Tailor, as follows:

Because I keep an excellent assortment of Cloths, Cassimeres, Vestings and Trimmings, which, when examined, always please.

Because my work is made up in a manner that takes down the country and gives all my customers a city appearance.

Because I am not inferior as a Cutter to the best to be found anywhere.

Because long experience in my business gives me entire control over it, and I am not dependant upon any one to fit me out of the suds.

Because I am still on the sunny side of forty, and therefore my taste as a Cutter and workman unimpaired.

Call on me, in the corner room of the "Brant House." Give me a trial and you will go away pleased.

Altoona, May 26-5m JACOB SNYDER.

MARRIAGE GUIDE—BEING A private instructor for married persons, or those about to be married, both male and female, in everything concerning the physiology and relations of our system, and the production or prevention offspring, including all the new discoveries never before given in the English language, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This is really a valuable and interesting work. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with numerous Engravings.—All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to marital life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or in postage stamps Address DR. WM. YOUNG, No. 416 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

☞ AFFLICTED AND UNFORTUNATE—No matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any one of the notorious quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of either of Dr. Young's Books, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health and possibly your life.

DR. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his Office, No. 416 Spruce St. above Fourth. Apr. 12, '60.-1yeow.

LABOR-SAVING WASHING MACHINE.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING purchased the right for Blair county, of

Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine, are now manufacturing them at Altoona, and intend to supply them to those persons throughout the county who desire a LABOR-SAVING MACHINE.

This machine is got up on an entirely new principle, and is considered, by those who have seen it in use, the best that has ever been brought before the public.

Among the many advantages of this machine over all others may be mentioned the following:

1st. Its simplicity of construction, making it almost impossible to get out of order.

2d. Its speed, which astonishes alike the operator and the looker on.

3rd. The facility with which it adapts itself to the bulk or quantity of clothes desired to be washed.

4th. It washes equally well the finest and lightest fabric or the coarsest and heaviest, such as bed-quilts, comforts, blankets, &c.

McMINN & DERN,
Altoona, Blair County, Pa.

We the undersigned, hereby certify that we are now using Tolhurst's Improved Washing Machine and are fully satisfied that it is a very excellent article of the kind; combining as it does great speed with little labor, and performing its work in the most satisfactory manner. We therefore cheerfully recommend it to all who desire a real labor-saving washing machine.

PROF. L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR!!

AN EFFECTIVE, SAFE AND ECONOMICAL COMPOUND,

FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR to its original color without dyeing, and preventing the hair from turning gray.

FOR PREVENTING BALDNESS, and caring it, when there is the least particle of vitality or recuperative energy remaining.

FOR REMOVING SCURF AND DANDRUFF, and all cutaneous affections at the Scalp.

FOR BEAUTIFYING THE HAIR, imparting to it an unequalled gloss and brilliancy, making it soft and silky in its texture and causing it to curl readily.

The great celebrity and the increasing demand for this unequalled preparation, convince the proprietor that one trial is only necessary to satisfy a discerning public of its superior qualities over any other preparation at present in use. It cleanses the head and scalp from dandruff and other cutaneous diseases, causes the hair to grow luxuriently, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, it will give strength and vigor to the roots, and restore the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore it to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume for the toilet and a Hair Restorative it is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls—hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being.

ONLY 25 CENTS

per bottle, to be had at all respectable druggists and perfumers.

L. MILLER would call the attention of Parents and Guardians to the use of the Invigorator, in cases where the childrens' Hair inclines to be weak. The use of it lays the foundation for a good head of hair, as it removes any impurities that may have become connected with the scalp, the removal of which is necessary both for the health of the child, and the future appearance of its Hair.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the fac simile LOUIS MILLER being on the outer wrapper; also, L. MILLER'S HAIR INVIGORATOR, N. Y. blown in the glass.

MOFFAT'S LIFE PILLS and PHŒNIX BITTERS.

THESE MEDICINE HAVES NOW been before the public for a period of thirty years, and during that time have maintained a high character in almost every part of the globe, for their extraordinary and immediate power of restoring perfect health to persons suffering under nearly every kind of disease to which the human frame is liable.

The following are among the distressing variety of human diseases in which the

are well known to be infallible.

DYSPEPSIA, by thoroughly cleansing the first and second stomachs, and creating a flow of pure, healthy bile, instead of the stale and acrid kind; FLATULENCY, Loss or Appetite, Heartburn, Headache, Restlessness, Ill Temper, Anxiety, Langour, and Melancholy, which are the general symptoms of Dyspepsia, will vanish, as a natural consequence of its cure.

COSTIVENESS, by cleansing the whole length of the intestines with a solvent process, and without violence; all violent purges leave the bowels costive within two days.

FEVERS of all kinds, by restoring the blood to a regular circulation, through the process of respiration in such cases, and the thorough solution of all intestinal obstruction in others.

The Life Medicines have been known to cure RHEUMATISM permanently in three weeks, and GOUT in half that time, by removing local inflammation from the muscles and ligaments of the joints.

DROPSIES of all kinds, by freeing and strengthening the kidneys and bladder; they operate most delightfully on these important organs, and hence have ever been found a certain remedy for the worst cases of GRAVEL.

Also WORMS, by dislodging from the turnings of the bowels the slimy matter to which these creatures adhere.

SCURVY, ULCERS, AND INVETERATE SORES, by the perfect purity which these LIFE MEDICINES give to the blood, and all the humors.

SCORBUTIC ERUPTIONS and BAD COMPLEXIONS, by their alterative effect upon the fluids that feed the skin, and the morbid state of which occasions all eruptive complaints, sallow, cloudy, and other disagreeable complexions.

The use of these Pills for a very short time will effect an entire cure of SALT RHEUM, and a striking improvement in the clearness of the skin. COMMON COLDS and INFLUENZA will always be cured by one dose, or by two in the worst cases.

PILES.—The original proprietor of these medicines, was cured of Piles, of 35 years standing, by the use of the Life Medicines alone.

FEVER & AGUE.—For this scourge of the Western country, these medicines will be found a safe, speedy and certain remedy. Other medicines leave the system subject to a return of the disease—a cure by these medicines is permanent—try them, be satisfied, and be cured.

BILLIOUS FEVERS and LIVER COMPLAINTS.—General debility, loss of appetite and diseases of females—the medicines have been used with the most beneficial results in cases of this description—Kings Evil and Scrofula, in its worst forms, yields to the mild yet powerful action of these remarkable Medicines. Night Sweats, Nervous Debility, Nervous Complaints of all kinds, Palpitation of the Heart, Painters' Colic, are speedily cured.

MERCURIAL DISEASES.—Persons whose constitutions have become impaired by the injudicious use of Mercury, will find these medicines a perfect cure, as they never fail to eradicate from the system all the effects of Mercury, infinitely sooner than the most powerful preparation of Sarsaparilla.

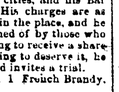
EXCHANGE HOTEL.—THE SUBSCRIBER would respectfully inform the public that he has recently refitted the above Hotel, and is now prepared to accommodate his friends and patrons in a comfortable manner, and he will spare no pains in making it an agreeable home for all sojourners. His Table will always be luxuriously supplied from the markets of the country and cities, and his Bar filled with liquors of choice brands. His charges are as reasonable as those of any other Hotel in the place, and he feels satisfied they can not be complained of by those who favor him with their custom. Expecting to receive a share of public patronage, and fully intending to deserve it, he throws open his house to the public and invites a trial.



I have just received a stock of No. 1 French Brandy, for medicinal purposes.

Also a large stock of excellent Wines, for medicinal purposes, together with a lot of the best old Rye Whiskey to be found in the country.

Altoona, May 27, 1859.-1y] JOHN BOWMAN.

Salt River Passengers, Ho!

AS THE SUBSCRIBER WILL BE under the necessity of leaving early in November for the head waters of Salt River, in the ship UNION, which will positively sail about that time; and knowing that many of my friends will go along and will want an outfit, I take this opportunity of informing them as well as all my old friends and customers, that I have just returned from the East, where I purchased a large stock of Goods, which I am now opening at my store in North Ward, to which I invite inspection. It is the

LARGEST AND HANDSOMEST

as well as the CHEAPEST lot of Goods brought to the town this fall. The reason why I say the CHEAPEST is obvious to every reflecting mind, because of the reason advances (the merchants in the east say) prices decline, therefore I have an advantage of from 20 to 25 per cent. over those who purchased early in the season, and I can and will sell cheaper than any other house in the place. Purchasers will thus at once see the propriety of at least examining my stock before buying elsewhere. My stock consists of all the newest styles of

LADIES' DRESS GOODS

for the season, also a full assortment of

GROCERIES,
BOOTS AND SHOES,
LADIES' SHAKER BONNETS,

Misses' Felt and Straw Hats, and everything in the line of Dry Goods and Notions which it is unnecessary to enumerate. All of which will be sold for cash, or to prompt paying monthly customers, or exchanged for all articles of Produce which can be consumed here or exchanged for goods in the East.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT IN COOKING STOVES.

CONSUMPTION OF SMOKE AND GAS AND SAVING OF FUEL.

The subscriber takes pleasure in offering to the public NEW GAS AND SMOKE CONSUMING Cooking Stove, recently patented, which is destined to supercede all others, as it requires than other stoves and is more easily, quickly and regularly heated. No unpleasant smell or gas arises from this stove from the fact that it is all consumed as it can escape. There is no trouble from smoke as that unpleasant and often annoying exhalation is also consumed inside of the stove. Neither is there any danger of flues or chimneys becoming clogged with soot or the mortar loosened by the gas arising from coal fires.

ONE-THIRD LESS FUEL

Persons wishing to purchase stoves are invited to call at the store of the subscriber, in the Masonic Temple, and examine the above stoves. JOHN SHOEMAKER, HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

The proprietors and manufacturers of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS can appeal with perfect confidence to physicians and citizens generally of the United States, because the article has attained a reputation heretofore unknown. A few facts upon this point will speak more powerfully than volumes of bare assertion or blazoning puffery. The consumption of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters for the last year amounted to over a half-million bottles, and from its manifest steady increase in times past, it is evident that during the coming year the consumption will reach near one million bottles. This immense amount could never have been sold but for the rare medicinal properties contained in the preparation, and the sanction of the most prominent physicians in those sections of the country where the article is best known, who not only recommend the Bitters to their patients, but are ready at all times to give testimonials to its efficacy in all cases of stomachic derangements and the diseases resulting therefrom.

This is not a temporary popularity, obtained by extraordinary efforts in the way of trumpeting the qualities of the Bitters, but a solid estimation of an invaluable medicine, which is destined to be as enduring as time itself.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters have proved a Godsend to regions where fever and ague and various other bilious complaints have counted their victims by hundreds. To be able to state confidently that the "Bitters" are a certain cure for the Dyspepsia and like diseases, is to the proprietors a source of unalloyed pleasure. It removes all morbid matter from the stomach, purifies the blood, and imparts renewed vitality to the nervous system, giving it that tone and energy indispensable for the restoration of health. It operates upon the stomach, liver, and other digestive organs, mildly but powerfully, and soon restores them to a condition essential to the healthy discharge of the functions of nature.

Elderly persons may use the Bitters daily as per directions on the bottle, and they will find in it a stimulant peculiarly adapted to comfort declining years, as it is pleasant to the palate, invigorating to the bowels, excellent as a tonic, and rejuvenating generally. We have the evidence of thousands of aged men and women who have experienced the benefit of using this preparation while suffering from stomach derangements and general debility; acting under the advice of physicians, they have abandoned all deleterious drugs and fairly tested the merits of this article. A few words to the gentler sex. There are certain periods when their cares are so harassing that many of them sink under the trial. The relation of mother and child is so absorbingly tender, that the mother, especially if she be young, is apt to forget her own health in her extreme anxiety for her infant. Should the period of maternity arrive during the summer season, the wear of body and mind is generally aggravated. Here, then, is a necessity for a stimulant to recuperate the energies of the system, and enable the mother to bear up under her exhausting trials and responsibilities. Nursing mothers generally prefer the Bitters to all other invigorators that receive the endorsement of physicians, because it is agreeable to the taste as well as certain to give a permanent increase of bodily strength.

All those persons, to whom we have particularly referred above, to wit: sufferers from fever and ague, caused by malaria, diarrhœa, dysentery, indigestion, loss of appetite, and all diseases or derangements of the stomach, superannuated invalids, persons of sedentary occupation, and nursing mothers, will consult their own physical welfare by giving to Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters a trial.

CAUTION.—We caution the public against using any of the many imitations or counterfeits, but ask for HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, and see that each bottle has the words "Dr. J. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters" blown on the side of the bottle, and stamped on the metallic cap covering the cork, and observe that our autograph signature is on the label.
